

INSTITUTIONAL DISTINCTIVENESS

LEARN & EARN

The educational institutions are the pillars and the basement of the future generation. To build a better future for the tutee, the educational policies and procedures are at the dome of their career build. The institutional jurisdiction should focus on the upliftment of the career oriented curriculum for the students.

The academic efforts to improve the competency in the work are a highlight of our institution. A student as an individual has to acquire the ability to enable to practice human relations, skills, self-reliance, self-confidence, and responsibility. Our institution supports learning for all students who urge to earn a career besides the Degree certificate. This initiative is having a good impact among students. The call of attention of our college is its Time Schedule.

College time schedule:

1. Earn with learn

The most and important factor that makes a person lively is the time. Time management is crucial in everyone's life. "Early to bed and early to rise makes a man healthy" is a quote that we applied and follow in our educational institution.

The college timing suitably modified with working hours that kicks off from 8.00 am till 1.45pm. The time schedule furthers the institutional core values. Taking care of expenses in college can be hard for some students. Most important concern is that the issues of economically backward students are amidst the hardships and they are in need of earning for their own study due to the low family income, they are able to support their own family and also they can be self-sufficient.

The time schedule of our college supports the students as they can engage in some part time job to earn extra pocket money also and they get work experience and hands-on training while studying. The initiatives that the students go for provide a motivation for learning and successfully complete their academic programs. Students draw insight into the world of work, could know career prospects, acquire job skills, develop interpersonal relations, and cultivate social skills, enhance employment prospects, increase industrial contacts, improve self-confidence, job knowledge, job-seeking skills, and serious attitude towards practical reasoning, develop greater maturity, and demonstrate competencies.

Making money as a student is indeed an exciting thought. In fact, there are various means through which students can earn some bucks while maintaining their academics. For many college students, making money is necessary to manage their fees and other financial needs. School going students can also utilize their free time to learn something new and fill up their pockets at the same time. These methods can also serve as excellent learning chances to build their career.

There are many opportunities through which our students earn using online or offline modes. Some of the students work at Departmental stores or restaurants or supermarkets or showrooms while some manage their earnings by doing online internships and also some go for online business. A lot of students choose to use their art for earning money through social media. Some go for freelance work instead of pursuing an internship; you can always work as a freelancer. This way, you will not be bound by a time frame, and you will be free to take up as much work as possible. Although freelance work requires some experience, and hence one needs to have a strong profile and portfolio to grab good offers. This is a good initiative for college students.

Students making money learn many essential life lessons and the importance of hard work. While it is always advised to give prime focus to studies, with effective time-management, students can create an excellent work-life balance. They want to become financially independent and achieve their goals and ambitions as soon as possible. Students who have the opportunity to get out of the classroom can gain genuine business and industry insights, develop their awareness of workplace culture, and also enhance critical workplace skills, such as positive leadership and communication.

It's also a great opportunity to help students them gain a better sense of what their purpose in life is

2. Reduce Drop outs

There is no doubt that our time schedule can provide skills of employability and strengthen students and prepare them to find successful career. Students assist the staff in various activities and it is possible to inculcate them the dignity of labour and to uphold the values of hard work to cope with the society.

Enhancement of skills adding to employability, strengthening of resourcefulness to take up better jobs in the future, development of personal interest and preference in the fields of learning and career, reduction of the sense of alienation in the students' minds about what they learn, and transformation of higher education into a self-directed, personal, and life-related enterprise, not always curiosity driven though. It is necessary to teach students the work ethics and communication skills. These returns consist of a lower unemployment risk, shorter job-search duration, higher wage effects, and greater job responsibility. They are ready to aid and support the family financially. They are eager to meet their basic and extra expenses and learn new skills. They feel free to utilize leisure time after school/ college. They are able to attain financial independence and security.

A student's life can be very demanding with a tight schedule to follow. At this learning phase of life, a student's top priority should always be studying. However, vacations and weekends bring some free time for the scholars, and with the right direction, one can utilize them to earn some boodle. Even free hours after school/ college can be utilized in a more efficient manner. With the advent of the internet and online media, numerous opportunities have come up. For the students, making money online or offline while studying can be a great learning experience. They will learn to manage finances efficiently at a young age and also become financially independent and they are able to survive in a competent world,

We are proud enough to say that our students proved to be a success in their career and they are well fit to the society
